COST OF ATTENDANCE

The annual Cost of Attendance (COA) is the total estimated cost for a student to attend Centra College for one year and is used for the purpose of determining federal financial aid eligibility. The COA includes direct and indirect costs. Direct costs are paid directly to Centra College (e.g., tuition and fees), while indirect costs are other estimated expenses not paid directly to the College. (e.g., books, supplies, food, housing, travel, etc.).

The estimated COA listed below for each program is based on standard nursing course enrollment as provided on the program curriculum guides and does not include costs for co-requisite courses taken at other institutions.

Cost of Attendance Allowance Definitions

Tuition and fees: An amount normally assessed to a student carrying the same academic workload, as determined by the institution.

Living expenses: An allowance for food and housing costs, as determined by the institution, to be incurred by the student attending the institution on at least a half-time basis, including:

- A standard food allowance that provides the equivalent of three meals each day.
- Housing allowances for students living off-campus must include rent or other housing costs.
- For dependent students living at home with parents, institutions must include a reasonable standard allowance for living expenses that are not zero.
- For students living in housing on a military base or for which they receive a basic allowance under section 403(b) of title 37, United States Code, institutions must include a reasonable allowance for food off-campus but cannot include housing costs.
- For all other students, institutions must include a reasonable allowance based on expenses incurred by such students.

Books, course materials, supplies, and equipment: An allowance for books, course materials, and equipment, which must include all such costs required of all students in the same course of study, including a reasonable allowance for the rental or upfront purchase of a personal computer, as determined by the institution.

Transportation: An allowance, as determined by the institution, which may include transportation between campus, residences, and place of work.

Miscellaneous personal expenses: An allowance, as determined by the institution, for a student attending the institution on at least a half-time basis.

Loan Fee: An allowance for the cost of any Federal student loan fee, origination fee, or insurance premium charged to the student or the parent of the student. The allowance may be actual or average costs, as appropriate; and may not include the cost associated with non-Federal loans.
